1 WHEREAS, the Parties agree that to ensure that third-parties' private contact
2 information is adequately protected, the Parties choose to follow the notice process
3 sanctioned by Central District of California in York v. Starbucks Corp., 2009 U.S.
4 Dist. LEXIS 92274, *4-5, 2009 WL 3177605 (C.D. Cal. June 30, 2009), and stipulate
5 as follows:

6 1. The protections of this Stipulation and Order are in addition to the general
7 protections the Parties agreed to under the Parties' Stipulated Protective Order,
8 entered by this Court on or around October 17, 2018 ("Protective Order") [Dkt No.
9 33].

10 2. Contact information for the putative class is protected by the employees'

12 Paragraphs 4a. of the Parties' Protective Order before being produced to Plaintiff's
13 Counsel.

14 3. At the outset of Plaintiff's Counsel's (or their designees') first contact

18 Counsel (or their designee), Counsel (or their designee) will terminate the contact and 19 not contact them again.

20 4. Plaintiff's Counsel (or their designee) will also inform each individual
21 that his or her refusal to speak with counsel will not prejudice his or her rights as a
22 putative class member should the Court certify the class.

23 5. Plaintiff's Counsel (or their designee) will keep a list of all individuals
24 contacted and all individuals who make it known that they do not want to be contacted
25 and preserve that list for the Court.

26 6. The contact information will be used only for the purposes of this action,
27 and it will not be disseminated to anyone who is not necessary to the prosecution of

7. A Party who seeks to file under seal any contact information for the putative class will comply with Local Rule 79-5. Said contact information may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific contact information at issue. If a Party's request to file said contact information is denied by the Court, then the Party may file the contact information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the Court.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
